STRATEGIC position of Richmond in bidding for the commerce of the world, particularly that of the Pacific, is ably illustrated in this illustration prepared by the Chamber of Commerce. In the mouth of the Golden Gate, Richmond with the proper harbor development bids fair to become the greatest port on the Pacific coast.

Driving forward on its goal for new industries, the city of Richmond expects 1929 to be a banner year in the location of additional manufacturing plants. CASE MAY GO TO JURY TODAY

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 6.—(U.P.)—The case today opened its final argument to send Gordon Stewart Northcott to the gallows for murdering and slaying three southern California boys.

In a vigorous plea, special Prosecutor Lloyd Kelley asked the jury to return a verdict of guilty against the alleged murder farm proprietor.

He reviewed the brutal six murders of Lewis and Nelson Wilkerson of Pomona on the Wineville chicken ranch and the slaying of an unidentified Mexican youth near Puente which are charged to the 22-year-old Canadian.

It was believed that the fate of Northcott would rest in the jury's hands sometime Thursday and that a verdict would be returned early Friday.

Kelly opened his argument after a defendant-stormy question-and-answer session. He, Morgan, whose delay in coming to Riverside necessitated adjournment on the trial until this afternoon shortly after the morning session opened.

Morgan testified that Jessie Clark, a material witness for the state, stayed at his home in Riverside and that Sanford Clark, his brother and chief prosecution witness, visited her while the trial was under way.

Northcott endeavored to get the witness to relate conversations which Sanford had with his sister but Morgan could give no information. It is upon the testimony of young Clark who testified that he saw Northcott murder the three victims that the state expects to convict the defendant.

COMMUNIST "FAIR PLAY"

A lot of self styled liberals in the United States profess to see something wrong with our system of government and at the same time express admiration of the Russian system, advocating at the same time American recognition of Russia and closer political relations with the Reds at Moscow. It is a little difficult to follow the reasoning of these communist sympathizers. They find everything that is noble and uplifting in the Russian experiment—so they say. Yet it is plain to any citizen who reads the newspaper that the rulers at Moscow have violated about all the national and international ethics associated with fair dealing. No sooner had Great Britain recognized the Reds than a campaign was put under way to undermine the British government and put something of the Moscow type in its place. As another example of Soviet "fair dealing" we may mention the program of pacifism and disarmament which the communists are pushing forward in every country but Russia. The other nations of the world ought to disarm, but Russia must have the biggest military establishment in the world for "defensive" purposes. And in this respect the word defensive is made to include a general and world wide war on capitalism.

The double dealing has not all been with European nations. Every pro-communistic organization in the United States is against any increase in our defensive establishment, every communist is seeking to cultivate closer relations with the United States and at the same time is endeavoring to destroy the government. Here is the real sound reason why Soviet Russia should not be recognized by the United States. The reason was adequately summed up recently by the National Civic Federation in a report to President Coolidge of a survey which showed its membership opposed to any change in our present policy toward Russia. The statement in part said:

"In submitting to you this report of our findings, signed by citizens representative of the various groups making up American national life * * * we are not actuated by any thought or fear that there will be the slightest departure from that policy either by your administration or by that of your successor. Nor are we alarmed over any imminent danger of the communists gaining appreciable headway in this country.

"Our purpose, however, is to give public expression to the overwhelming American sentiment against recognition of a regime whose colossal impudence in coming into this country and working openly for the overthrow of our government at the very time it is seeking loans and credits as well as political recognition is an offense to one's patriotism and a challenge to our national intelligence."

NECESSARY DESTRUCTION

The work given to James A. Reed to do as senator from Missouri has been extremely well done. It has not been constructive work, but there is a place in our government for destructive forces. As the greatest opposition senator in many decades, James A. Reed did not even give over his role when a member of his own party sat in the White House.

The elevation of a man to congress is always accompanied by an increase in his theoretical hat size. No matter how strongly a modest senator may strive for a becoming humility, the aura that surrounds him insidiously affects his behavior. And this is no special case; every one would suffer the same affliction. That is why there is a useful niche in the high government places for a critic who can sing and burn with his words. Reed had that ability beyond most of the senators in the whole history of our nation.

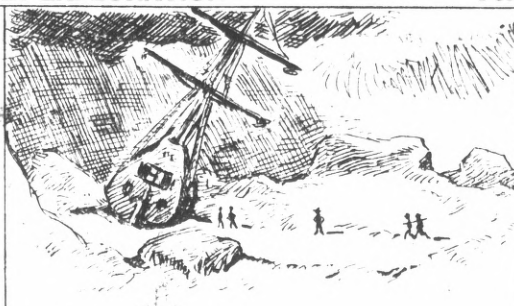

He retires from the senate in March. Many will aspire to fill his part in the legislative drama. But they will be mere understudies.

They used to preserve things in alcohol but the alcohol you get nowadays will eat up anything that's put into it.

Mrs. Secretary of the Treasury

Nowadays it is becoming more and more the practice, particularly among the younger people, to regulate expenditure of income by the budget system. To the wife is delegated the task of keeping the family expenses within set limits - she is the real secretary of the family treasury. She must count the pennies and stretch them to their utmost buying power.

The modern woman knows how to make a dollar purchase one hundred cents' worth of value. She reads the advertisements in her daily newspaper and notes what is being advertised that she needs. She scans them closely to know what is newest and best in clothes, in foods, in utilities that will make the home work easier, the little luxuries that will make it more comfortable. Yet her purchases are regulated by the budget - advertising helps her to keep within bounds.

Such is the value of advertising to the woman in the home. It is her faithful adviser, ever ready to tell her what, when and where to buy and how much to pay.

LEGION NAMES AMERICANISM COMMITTEE

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 6.—Frank L. Pinalo of Wilkes Barre, Pa., has been reappointed a member of the National Americanism commission of the American Legion, according to an announcement by Paul V. McNutt, national commander of the Legion. This is one of the most important bodies of the Legion.

The new members of the committee, together with two reappointments, all approved at the recent meeting of the national executive committee, and the states they represent are as follows:

Pennsylvania, Frank L. Pinalo, Wilkes Barre, chairman.
Mississippi, Ernest Waldauer, Greenville.
Nebraska, C. C. Frazier, Aurora.
Colorado, Morton M. David, Denver.
Illinois, W. C. Beestold, Evanston.
Arizona, M. J. G. Dougherty, Mesa.

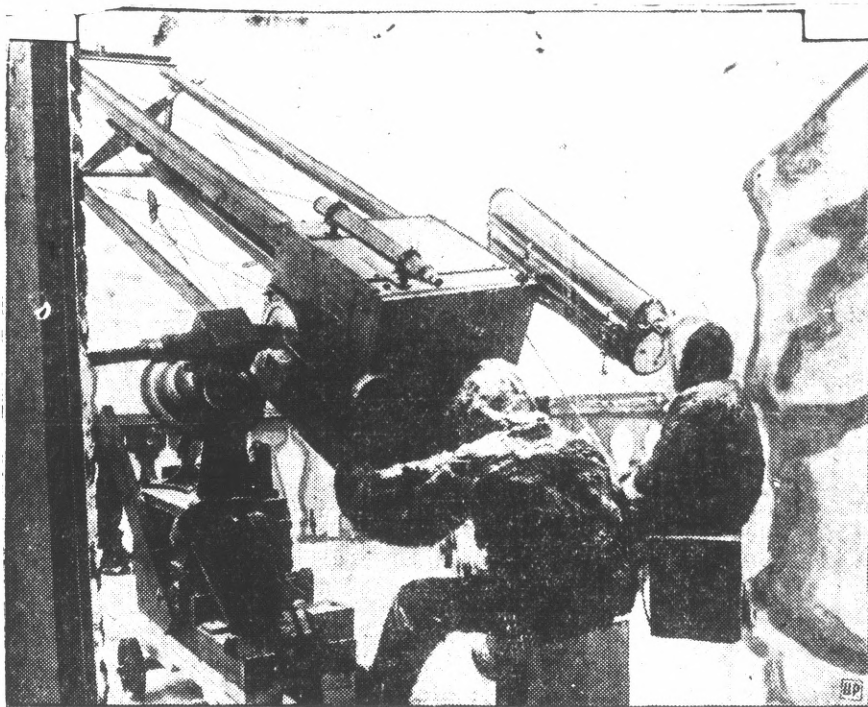

One of the major activities of the Americanism commission this year is the nation wide junior baseball program of the Legion. Last year more than 122,000 boys participated in this competition and the commission believes from the interest that is being manifested this year the number will be increased to possibly 500,000. Various county, district, state and regional tournaments are held, finishing with a "little world series" at which the junior world championship is decided. The program has the endorsement and financial backing of the American and National major league baseball leagues to the extent of $50,000.

The whole junior baseball activity is based on the theory that the principles of good sportsmanship are closely related to the principles of good citizenship and that by teaching the boy to be a good sportsman it will make him a better American citizen in adult life. Another good avenue for teaching the principles of Americanism has been found by the Legion in the sponsoring of the Boy Scout movement. Legion posts all over the country are sponsoring Boy Scout troops. Every effort is being made to teach the duties of good citizenship to these boys so that they will develop into useful, patriotic Americans.

In its community service work, the major activity of the Americanism commission, special attention is being given this year to the organization of emergency relief units and to conducting safety campaigns. Some very good work has been done by these relief units in time of community disaster. The work of the Legion in the Florida hurricane last year was outstanding, more than 2500 Legionnaires volunteering for relief duty. An effort is being made by the Americanism commission to have all of the 10,000 posts of the Legion organize such units. In addition to these major objectives the commission will continue to direct numerous other community service activities that have met with success in former years.

cisco Bay.

Their coming was followed by the Standard Oil, which a little more than 20 years ago built the world's largest oil refinery near what is now Richmond Outer Harbor. The company employs nearly 4000 employees, and has an annual payroll of nearly $7,000,000.

Other Industries

Other outstanding concerns in Richmond are the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing company, Corliss Products corporation, the Pullman company, Republic Steel Packaged company, Richmond Pressed Brick company, California Art Tile company, Princeton Knitting Mills, Santa Fe Foundry and the Stauffer Chemical company.

Development plans for the immediate future are now concentrated to a great extent on the Inner Harbor, which is now virgin territory. A new $500,000 pier is being built there by the Parr-Richmond Terminal company, adjoining the 70 acres recently purchased by the Ford Motor company as a site for a $5,000,000 western assembling plant. The Parr-Richmond Terminal is now well advanced in construction and will be in operation in June or July of this year. Final details of street work and other arrangements necessary to complete the tracks and street for the occupancy of the Ford Motor company will be made in the near future. The industrial tract faces on thirty-two feet of water. There is a large area of available industrial land in the immediate vicinity not yet allotted to any company.

Canal Dredging

Another big project in sight for the near future is the dredging of the Cutting canal by the Santa Fe Railroad company and other holders of property which front on the channel, a development that will add entirely new area to Richmond's industrial map and will bring deep water ships clear up to Cutting Boulevard. The site of the Proctor and Gamble Soap company is in this vicinity and it is expected that this concern will establish a large factory there within a year.

The 21 directors of the chamber of commerce have pledged themselves to devote their best interest to bringing new industries to Richmond during the year just beginning and have announced that a number of important deals along this line are now in progress of incubation.

Richmond stands nearer to the Golden Gate than any other city on the east side of San Francisco bay and is the logical distribution point for a big inland area, including both the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys.

As things stand now, 14 percent of the shipping of San Francisco bay originates in Richmond; this figure being made possible because of the vast quantity of material shipped by such large concerns as the Standard Oil, the value of whose output is placed at $100,000,000 yearly.

Adequate funds to post veterinarians at all ports to watch for diseased meat was to be asked of the federal legislators.

The governor conferred with George H. Hocke, director of the state department of agriculture, before making his announcement. He said the hoof and mouth disease has been completely controlled in the state by the killing of all cattle in three herds near Whittier that had symptoms of the disease.

Richmond K. P. Plan Conclave

Plans for a district convention to be held in Pittsburg Feb. 29, were discussed by the members of Richmond lodge Knights of Pythias at a meeting last night in Brotherhood hall. H. C. Donnelly, chancellor commander, presided over the business session.

WIFE NURSES LOVER BACK TO LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—UP—The wife of a wealthy Los Angeles hotel man, Mrs. Pearl Sutcliffe, sat by the bedside of Carl Bengstrom, 21, an opera player whom her husband has been accused of cutting with a knife during a raid on a hotel room, until the youth's life had been saved here today.

While police officers of the state continued to look for Walter J. Sutcliffe tonight on a warrant charging assault with intent to commit murder, Duncan Mathewson, captain of detectives here was writing a detailed report for the state board of prison directors criticizing two private detectives for not preventing the assault.

Mathewson pointed out he had no power over private detectives but could report the inactivity of A. L. Shore and C. O. Polly, operatives of the Burns detective agency who accompanied Sutcliffe on the raid as detailed to him by his subordinates.

Mrs. Sutcliffe won a continuance of her hearing on a misdemeanor charge filed because she was in the hotel room with Bengstrom under an assumed name and was released on $500 bail. She immediately went to the sanatorium where the young pianist was waiting a battle with death and not by his bed until he was out of danger.

"It might have been worse," was all that Bengstrom could say regarding his fight of being awakened by the pain of a sharp knife cut.

Sutcliffe has been brought home more than 24 hours. He walked out of the detective agency office shortly before a report was made to police.

ROSENWALD TO AID JOHN D. IN FIGHT

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—UP—Julius Rosenwald, millionaire philanthropist, and Mrs. Clarence Darrow, wife of the famous criminal attorney, today entered the Standard Oil proxy fight, both on the side of the Rockefeller.

Rosenwald who is not a stockholder, explained he had sent letters urging the shareholders to send their proxies to John D. Rockefeller to be used in ousting Col. Robert W. Stewart chairman of the board, because he felt it was "fitting for stockholders in any enterprise to see that the business is managed by officers whom they could trust."

Mrs. Darrow, who owns 100 shares of stock, sent her proxy to Rockefeller, her husband announced today.

Stewart followed appeared worried over Rosenwald's statement and expressed the belief that the colonel already was assured of victory.

"We have a majority of the 58,000 shareholders and we hold a majority of the 6,000,000 votes, which the shareholders will cast," one Stewart supporter said.

Not To Vote

The Stewart spokesman estimated that approximately one-third of the 9,250,000 shares available for voting at the annual stockholders' meeting at Whiting, Ind., March 7, would not be voted. He explained that certain large stockholders would choose not to cast any reflection on Stewart's ability not to antagonize the Rockefeller.

This feeling, it was pointed out, was brought about by the recent 50 percent extra dividend award which gave more than four hundred million dollars to present stockholders.

COLD WAVE ON WAY EAST REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—UP—A new cold wave sweeping eastward from the Rockies threatened tonight to break the mild weather's short respite from zero temperatures and appeared likely to bring with it all the dangers to life and livestock that accompanied previous cold spells.

The weather bureau here warned that the wave would move eastward across Iowa and Wisconsin and southward into Kansas. Snow would fall in the Chicago area, the forecast said.

Points in Montana, Idaho and Colorado, which suffered most from the drop in temperatures today, reported new low records for the winter. The mercury dropped to 22 degrees below zero at Hays, Mont. Miles City, Mont. reported 14 degrees below and Billings, 12 below.

Eight degrees below was the minimum at Sheridan and Cheyenne, Wyo.

A snow storm, edging on a high north which made roads impassable in northern Colorado. Two street cars were delayed by drifts in downtown Denver.

Swinging eastward, the cold wave struck North Dakota and western Kansas. The thermometer at Williston, N. D., registered 22 below and neighboring points reported similar temperatures.

The cold snap will continue through Thursday and possibly Friday, weather bureau officials said.

Scout Troop 8 Has Display In Garfinkle Store

Troop No. 8 of the Richmond Boy Scouts last night arranged a special display of Scouting in the windows of the Garfinkle clothing store on Macdonald avenue between Eighth and Ninth streets.

The display is a camping scene, with miniature Scouts gathered about a model tent. A special display of herbs that may be used for medicine are being shown. The herbs were collected by the boys.

This model will be on display throughout Scout week, which will be held from tomorrow to next Thursday night.

Will be a most prosperous year for Richmond, and one of great activity industrially and in the building line.

Harbor development will reach such a stage that deep water will be available for the largest vessels.

What Is Coming

Ford Motor Company will start on its new assembling plant the latter part of the year.

The Mintzer tract of nearly 200 acres will be developed so that industries will be afforded choice locations.

The two new harbor units of the City of Richmond and the Parr Terminal Corporation, costing over $500,000 will be completed next July and be ready to receive cargo.

There is much activity at the new plant of the California Spray Chemical company, and the plant will be operating shortly after January 1st.

All plans for the new factory of the California Vitreous Porcelain company are complete, and work on the buildings to be erected on Kearney street will start in about two months.

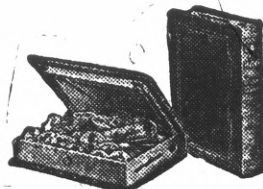

There are many other things in the wind, for 1929, details of which will be given you later.

80 KILLED IN INDIAN RIOTS

LONDON, Feb. 6.—(UP)—Rioting between workmen and Pathan religious fanatics in Bombay, which has resulted in the death of 80 persons and the wounding of several hundred, focused the eyes of British political leaders on the troublesome Indian situation again today.

The rioting started four days ago when it was rumored that Pathans were planning to kidnap boys for sacrificial purposes.

The present disturbances provide a striking illustration of the difficulty of governing an easily inflammable nation of religious fanatics, the most severe opponents of Indian independence.

Many observers contend that one of the greatest difficulties of the government in India has been the constant contention of natives, resulting in many religious clashes.

HAT HOLDER OF HOOVER IN DISPUTE

WEST BRANCH, Ia., Feb. 6.—(UP)—With inauguration day at Washington less than a month away, West Branch, home town of President-elect Herbert Hoover, became a hotbed of activity tonight following a political uproar in the heart of the city.

Just as the townspeople were ready to send Newt Butler, who holds the distinction of whipping Hoover in a boyhood fist fight, to a position of honor at the White House on March 4, sponsors of another candidate brought out their man in opposition for the appointment of "hat holder."

It seemed that Butler was certain of the nomination in reward for the licking he gave Hoover when both were boys.

However an announcement came from Tipton, Ia., six miles north of here, that J. W. Reeder, 92, was in line for the post and his started the turmoil. George A. Kerson, secretary to Hoover, sent word it was "all news to him."

It is understood that Hoover is handling the matter personally and Reeder may get the "hat-holding" job. Meantime political wires are being pulled for Newt, and backroom conferences are being held here.

The hat holding custom started at the Lincoln inauguration. Lincoln is said to have looked around for a place to put his "stovepipe" but handed it to Stephen Douglas. The latter remarked, "If I can't be president, I'll hold his hat."

These visits were explained in an interview over the air which was interspersed with humorous remarks by the two children.

Richmond's woman mayor, Mattie A. Chandler, was described by the children.

The program was broadcast by courtesy of the Remar Baking company of Oakland. It was put on the air between the hours of 7:30 and eight o'clock.

A careful examination of the body made by doctors under the direction of Coroner Aubrey Wilson failed to reveal any injuries other than the burns which caused the death.

Capt. L. E. Jones and Inspector George Bengley of the local police department yesterday chartered the plane of Garland Lincoln and made an aerial inspection of the territory in which a flash was reported early Friday morning. Although several hours were spent in flying over the entire canyon nothing was found that would indicate a fire or an explosion. A further inspection of the canyon was later made on foot but was fruitless.

Police entertain hopes of being able to check up the car of Glosso through the license number which is in their hands. This will be delayed for some time however due to the confusion caused by the registration period recently completed. The number given to authorities was that of 1928.

ORMISTON WILL FACE CHECK HEARING

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—(UP)—Kenneth G. Ormiston, the "love-meat" tenant of the Albee Temple McPherson "kidnapping" investigation, will be called to tell a legislative committee of asserted bad checks issued by him, the committee decided late today.

Ormiston will be subpoenaed Thursday, but no date for his questioning has been set by the committee announced. The investigators plan further hearings here next week before reporting to the assembly February 18.

The checks were first mentioned last week when Mrs. McPherson was quizzed by the committee, which asked her if she had ever made good any checks issued by the radio man or if he had ever been in jail for issuing them without sufficient funds.

Mrs. McPherson refused to answer on advice of counsel. The committeemen also asked her if she had ever sought legal advice from Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy for legal advice in connection with the bad checks it connected with Ormiston.

The committee's real purpose in its present investigation is to determine if a $2500 check given Judge Hardy by Angelus Temple was for legal advice. If it is found that his conduct in accepting the check while sitting on the superior bench was unethical he faces impeachment by the assembly.

Children's Colds Doubly Dangerous After the Flu

Physicians advise that the chief danger in this epidemic is after influenza. Then, more than ever, colds attacking the weakened system may lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, or a second and more severe case of flu. This is especially true of children.

Flu nearly always leaves the stomach upset. Internal medication should, therefore, be avoided, as it so often further disturbs the digestion and thus retards recovery.

But if a fresh cold comes, don't let the child keep it overnight. Just rub Vicks on throat and chest at bedtime. As it is applied externally, Vicks can be used freely even on the youngest child, with no fear of upsetting a delicate stomach.
